

SPEAKING ENGAGEMENTS

The Red Sea Rules: Based on Rob's popular little book, the theme of this presentation is based on the story of the Israelites at the Red Sea in Exodus 14: Ten God-Given Strategies for Difficult Times. In some cases, church pastors have preached a series of messages on this subject, and Rob has been invited to conclude the series. Or Rob can present an overview of The Red Sea Rules in half-hour, one hour, or multiple hour presentations.

Then Sings My Soul: The two volumes on hymn stories—Then Sings My Soul, Books 1 and 2, have sold a million copies, proving that many people still cherish the old hymns. How about having a Then Sings My Soul night with your church? By working in advance, your choirs, choral groups, soloists, and musicians can prepare for a special evening, and Rob can be woven into the presentation to introduce the background of some of the hymns. A variation is a special production that presents the entire sweep and heritage of our hymns. This presentation is called: Holy, Holy, Holy: The History of Hymns. It'll provide a never-to-be-forgotten evening of worship and praise for your church.

Come Let Us Adore Him: This book tells the stories behind our favorite Christmas carols. For a special holiday evening, Rob will work with your church musicians to present a medley of Christmas carols, interspersed with great stories and heartwarming inspiration.

ROBERT J. MORGAN

Rob was born in Elizabethton, Tennessee in 1952. Converted to Christ in childhood and called to preach as a teenager, Rob attended King College in Bristol, TN. He holds degrees from Columbia International University, Wheaton Graduate School, and Luther Rice Seminary.

While in college, Rob worked with the Billy Graham Evangelistic Association doing advance work for crusades. After graduation, he served as pastor of Harris Memorial Church in Greeneville, TN from 1976-1979. In January of 1980 he moved to Nashville to pastor The Donelson Fellowship where he has seen the church grow in size from 100 to 1000. With approximately two million books in print, he is a Gold Medallion author, a brand author for B&H Publications, and a staff writer for Dr. David Jeremiah's Turning Points Magazine.

Rob and his wife Katrina have three daughters, nine granddaughters, and one grandson. Family hobbies include traveling, reading, and cooking. The Morgans make their home in the Opryland area of Nashville.

My All in All

Daily Assurance of God's Grace

In this presentation, Pastor Morgan draws on the strategically-placed "alls" of Scripture to highlight God's all-sufficient grace in meeting all our needs at all times in all ways and we love Him with all our hearts and acknowledge Him in all our ways.

MY ALL IN ALL
Daily Assurance of God's Grace

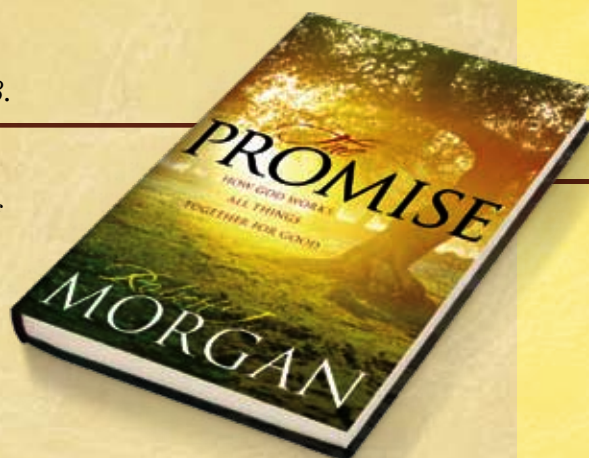

Despite decades of preaching experience, it was just a few years ago that best-selling author Robert Morgan began to note the magnitude and frequent use of the word "all" in the Bible. Upon closer inspection, it appears to amplify many of God's greatest truths, commands, and promises nearly six thousand times, proving itself to be what Morgan calls "the largest little word in the world."
